DATE: ___________________________________

STUDENT: _______________________________

PROSPECTUS TITLE:
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

IRB status: _______________________________

Results of Defense (please check and/or explain):

ACCEPTED as is: ___________________________

ACCEPTED AFTER REVISIONS (noted below):
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

REVISION COMPLETED ON: ____________________________ (date)

Admitted to Doctoral Candidacy: ____________________________ (date)

Signatures of Committee Members:

__________________________________________
(Outside Member)

__________________________________________
__________________________________________
__________________________________________
__________________________________________

(Major Professor)

Instructions: A copy of this form should be completed at the end of the formal defense. If revisions are required, another copy should be signed when the revisions are complete and accepted by the major professor (and/or others). Only the signature of the major professor is required at the second stage. Students must provide a copy of their approved, edited and corrected prospectus to the Graduate Program Office, along with this form, in order to receive credit for having passed the prospectus defense.