

INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS

COLLEGE OF SOCIAL SCIENCES AND PUBLIC POLICY

THE INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS MAJOR is an interdisciplinary program designed to equip students with a fundamental knowledge of the field of International Affairs, to acquaint them with the basic methods of approach to the field, and to provide the basis for intelligent observation of international affairs. This document provides a brief overview of the major. Please consult the FSU Academic Bulletin for a complete description of degree requirements.

Requirements for a MAJOR in International Affairs:

39 hours beyond General Education with a grade of 'C-' or better in each course with an overall 2.0 major GPA. 18 of these 39 hours must be at the 3/4000 level. All major coursework must be selected from the approved course list published each semester by the International Affairs program.

Required Coursework

- INS3003: Introduction to International Affairs with a 'C-' or higher
- Students must complete approved coursework in at least 3 participating departments, chosen from Anthropology, Economics, Geography, History, Modern Languages, Philosophy, Political Science, Public Administration, Religion, Sociology, and Urban & Regional Planning.
- Students must complete a minimum 12 hour concentration from at least one participating department

Language Requirement

Students must complete coursework or demonstrate proficiency through the intermediate level in a modern foreign language.

Requirements for a MINOR in International Affairs

Eighteen hours of International Affairs approved coursework with 'C-' grades or higher, chosen from at least 3 participating departments. Modern language courses at the 3000-level and above may count toward the minor and a maximum of six semester hours of directed individual studies or internship credits may apply to the minor. At least 9 of these 18 credit hours must be at the 3/4000-level.

Occupations Relevant to International Affairs:

- Foreign Service Officer
- Political Risk Analyst
- Intelligence Analyst
- International Non-Profit Management
- Occupations focused on specific cultures or regions of the world

Advisors available in 105 & 106 Bellamy Building