To be eligible, you must submit this form with the documents described in the checklist below no later than Thursday, November 10, 2016. All applicants will be considered for both awards, but eligibility for the Peterson award requires evidence of an interest in economics education.

- _____ 1. Resume.
- _____ 2. Transcript of all coursework completed showing your cumulative college GPA as of the end of Summer Semester 2016.
- _____ 3. List of courses in which you are enrolled for Fall Semester 2016.
- _____ 4. Letters of recommendation from two economics professors.
- _____ 5. Statement of purpose (not a recapitulation of information available on your resume): Explain why you have chosen a major in economics, what you feel economics can contribute to your academic and professional development, and what you propose to do with your economics training.

To be eligible for the Sharp Family Scholarship, students must have demonstrated financial need. Applicants for the Sharp Family Scholarship must certify financial need by checking below:

- _____ 6. I certify that I am receiving need-based financial aid. (These include but are not limited to Pell Grants, assistance from the Southern Scholarship Foundation, Florida Student Assistance grants, First Generation Matching Grants, Federal Supplemental Education Opportunity Grants, Federal Work-Study, and any other need-based Federal, State, or University grants or scholarships. Florida Bright Futures Scholarships ARE NOT need-based.)
