Geography Department / Bellamy 313
Office Hours by Appointment

网贷 During the week, expect a response time within 24-48 hours. For emails sent over the weekend, expect a response on the following Monday. This would also hold true for holidays.

SETTING UP THE COURSE
1. Obtain a statement of duties from your internship supervisor and submit it to the course instructor, me, Dr. Rachael Cofield. Before you can register for the course, submit a written statement that specifies the nature of your work, your start and ending dates, and the approximate hours you are expected to work on a weekly basis. If appropriate, you can prepare this letter yourself and ask your supervisor to sign it.

2. Provide the contact information of your internship supervisor to Dr. Cofield. This should include your supervisor's work email (this is required!), phone number, and address.

3. Once the above approved by Dr. Cofield, contact the Department of Geography academic program specialist, Ms. Allison Young (aryoung@fsu.edu), to set up this course.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES

- Students should log on to Canvas at least every other day to check for course updates.
- Students are expected to keep up with the class, engage with the course material, and submit assignments by the due dates.
- Assignments, quizzes, and exams are expected to be products of individual students per the FSU Academic Honor Policy. Students should not discuss any of the questions with each other before or during the actual assignments, activities, quizzes, or exams without instructor approval.
- To receive maximum points for questions, students need to follow the instructions carefully, follow word limits as instructed, and use spell and grammar checking.
- To be successful in this course, students need to complete all required assignments and tests.

GRADING POLICY

You may choose whether to receive a letter (A, B, C, D, F) or Pass/Fail grade. You are highly encouraged to consult with the course instructor on this matter. If you would like to go with the pass/fail grading system, you will need to fill out the FSU Undergraduate Permit to Register for a Course on a “Satisfactory- Unsatisfactory Grade” Basis form at the very beginning of the semester. Your course grade will be assigned based on the evaluation of your biweekly reports (20%), your internship paper (20%), and the evaluation letter from your supervisor (60%).

ASSIGNMENTS

- When your internship appointment begins, report to Dr. Cofield on Canvas or via email with a summary of your assignments and working progress every two weeks. You are encouraged to keep a journal of your work on a daily basis; however, for this biweekly report, please submit just a brief summary in text. Recommended length: 200-250 words. These will be due on Sundays in their respective weeks.

- Write and submit an internship paper. In this paper, you need to relate your internship work with knowledge gained in your formal university courses. The paper needs to be focused on academic research (instead of a journal log of your internship tasks). It needs to include academic components with the support of literature references such as journal articles, book chapters, and/or textbook. Your paper is expected to be 1,500 words (plus figures and/tables if necessary) for a 3-credit hour enrollment; or 3,000 words for 6-credit hours. It is due on Canvas or via email electronically on the last day of class by 5 pm. No delay will be accepted.

- Ask your supervisor to write a letter of evaluation and email it to Dr. Cofield by the last day of class. During the last week of classes, your supervisor is expected to email a letter of evaluation of your job performance to Dr. Cofield. The letter should contain letter grade (A, B, C, D, F) and written comments. It should also be signed by your supervisor and be printed with your employer's letterhead. An evaluation letter that does not arrive before the instructor submits grades will result in an Incomplete of your course. Be sure to remind your supervisor to provide the letter of evaluation on time.

TECHNOLOGY REQUIREMENTS

Course content is accessible through Canvas. Students will need to be able to view videos, write and upload assignments, post to discussion boards, and take assessments. Students should have access to high-speed internet and updated software. Mobile devices may be used to view course content, upload assignments, and take assessments as determined by the instructor. To view the most current technology requirements, visit the FSU Canvas support site (https://support.canvas.fsu.edu/kb/article/899-technology-recommendations-for-learning-online-at-fsu/).

COURSE POLICIES

COMMUNICATIONS/NETIQUETTE

For Discussions:

- Please use polite, respectful behavior when posting your responses to prompts in the Discussion Boards.
- Be mindful of how you express your emotions and humor, and be sensitive to cultural and ability differences of your online peers.
- Keep postings to the point, and make sure your comments are relevant to the topic of discussion.
- Avoid messages such as, "Wow," "Way to go," or "Ditto" and aim for comments that validate other members' ideas through careful explanation of why.
- When replying, give a short description in the subject line of what you are replying to, and use correct punctuation and spelling throughout your post.

For Email Communication:

- For email, please respond to your instructor's and peers' messages within a 24-hour period.
- Use a brief description in the subject line that outlines the topic of discussion.
- Avoid using slang or profane words.
- Use your instructor's correct title he or she prefers for communication.
- Avoid using emoticons, such as smiley faces, and maintain a professional demeanor.
- Sign your email messages using your full name.
○ AVOID USING ALL CAPS. This makes the message visually difficult to read and is perceived by the reader as "shouting."
○ Use correct spelling, grammar, and punctuation, just as you would for any communication.
○ Ask yourself whether you would be comfortable if someone other than the intended receiver were to read your message. Remember, email is not a completely secure form of communication.
○ Refrain from "flaming," which is expressing a strongly held opinion without tact or regard for others. Don't assume that recipients will know the intent of the message (e.g., "just kidding"). It reads differently when it's in print (electronic or not).
○ Report any inappropriate communication considered to be of a serious nature to your instructor, as it may be a violation of University policy.
○ Treat others with respect by making messages clear and succinct.

PARTICIPATION & LATENESS POLICY

Excused absences include documented illness, deaths in the family and other documented crises, call to active military duty or jury duty, religious holy days, and official University activities. These absences will be accommodated in a way that does not arbitrarily penalize students who have a valid excuse. Consideration will also be given to students whose dependent children experience serious illness.

I will usually accept late work, within reason. If you miss a submission deadline please email me. As long as you are not submitting early semester work in the last couple of weeks of class I generally will accept late work.

POLICY ON RESPONDING TO STUDENTS

○ During the week, expect a response time within 24-48 hours. For emails sent over the weekend, expect a response on the following Monday. This would also hold true for holidays.
○ Graded assignments typically returned within 2 weeks after due date.
