

Brad Kile, PhD
1564 Lee Avenue
Tallahassee, Florida 32303

(850)212-8127
bkile@fsu.edu

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Florida State University Tallahassee, FL

Visiting Instructor (August 2005 - Present)

Visiting Instructor in Political Science Department for Masters of Applied Politics and Policy Program. Course taught: Seminar in Political Research (POS5335,) Spring 2004-13; Seminar in Political Lobbying (POS5465) Fall 2004-12.

Dumbarton Group, LLC Tallahassee, FL

Principal (August 2001 - Present)

Dumbarton Group, LLC provides government affairs, communication, policy analysis, and association management services. Recent clients include: Florida Chapter of the American Society of Consultant Pharmacists, Florida Alliance of Portable X-Ray Providers, Innovatix, LLC, BioScrip, Inc., and National Association of Portable X-ray Providers.

American Society of Consultant Pharmacists Alexandria, VA

Assistant Director of Government Affairs (October 2000 – July 2001)

Manager of State Government Affairs (January 1997 – October 2000)

Responsibilities Included:

- Advocating federal and state health issues relating to pharmaceutical use among seniors.
- Monitoring, analyzing, and reporting federal and state regulatory and legislative activity relating to pharmaceuticals and health care.
- Developing policy for Medicare and Medicaid payment advocacy initiatives.
- Communicating public policy activity and analysis through presentations and written reports.
- Implementing grassroots strategies to impact regulatory and legislative process.
- Serving as Co-chairman of Alliance for Pharmaceutical Care, a coalition of 10 national organizations.

National Grass Roots & Communications, Inc. Alexandria, VA

Manager of Health Care Policy (January 1995 - January 1997)

Responsibilities Included:

- Managing federal and state lobbying activities of health care clients.
- Representing interest of health care clients before federal and state officials.
- Designing and implementing grassroots programs.

Ruder Finn, Inc. Washington, DC

Account Executive/Office Manager (February 1993 - January 1995)

Responsibilities Included:

- Developing and implementing lobbying and media relations strategies.
- Writing proposals, pitch letters, press releases, media advisories and client materials.
- Directing all financial and administrative aspects of office operations.

EDUCATION

Doctor of Philosophy, Florida State University, Tallahassee, Florida, 2005

Major in Public Policy (Political Science Department)

Dissertation: Networks, Interest Groups and the Diffusion of State Policy

Master of Arts, The American University, Washington, DC, 1997
Major in American Government

The American University Lobbying Institute - Graduate, 1997
The American University Campaign Management Institute - Graduate, 1996

Bachelor of Science, James Madison University, Harrisonburg, Virginia, 1992
Double Major in Political Science, Public Administration

ACADEMIC ACTIVITIES

Appointments

Instructor, Florida State University, August 2010 – Present

Visiting Instructor, Florida State University, August 2005 – April 2010

LeRoy Collins Fellowship, Florida State University, August 2001 – April 2005

Courses Taught

American National Government (POS1041, Undergraduate),
Florida State University: Summer 2002-04

Seminar in Political Research (POS5335, Masters of Applied Politics and Policy Program),
Florida State University: Spring 2004-14

Seminar in Political Lobbying (POS5465, Masters of Applied Politics and Policy Program), Florida State University: Fall 2004-14.

Awards

Florida State University Outstanding Teaching Assistant Award, Nomination: 2004 and 2005

Publications

2008. "Do Networks Enhance Cooperation? Policy Communities, Issue Networks, and Joint Environmental Projects" with John T Scholz and Ramiro Berardo. Journal of Politics 70(2): 393-406.

COMPUTER SKILLS

Proficient in Windows and Mac environments. Extensive policy research experience with statistical programs including STATA and SPSS.